

2016

NEW YEAR'S EVE IN NEW ORLEANS

With an unparalleled, year-round music scene and a culture centered on New Orleans' unique sound, New Year's Eve in New Orleans offers music lovers a celebration like no other.

TRAVEL'S TUNE VALUE

Three nights at The Whitney Hotel located in downtown New Orleans, plus unforgettable local music and dining experiences. Here's a glimpse of the itinerary:

DECEMBER 30 – Dinner at Root, award-winning Chef Phillip Lopez's modern dining destination located in the Central Business District.

DECEMBER 31 – Cajun/Creole cooking demonstration and three-course lunch with wine pairing at Langlois in the Marigny.

NEW YEAR'S EVE – Rock the night away with Louisiana Blues legend Tab Benoit at the world-famous Rock-n-Bowl Lanes.

JANUARY 1 – Free Day!
Recommendations for restaurants, tours, and activities available upon request.

JANUARY 1 – Meander the Mississippi River on a sunset Dinner Jazz Cruise on the Steamboat Natchez.

JANUARY 2 – Bon voyage!

RATES:

Double Occupancy $3,110
Single Occupancy $2,230

TRAVEL'S TUNE PREMIUM

Three nights at the International House boutique hotel downtown, plus exclusive dining off-the-beaten-path cultural experiences. Here's a glimpse of the itinerary:

DECEMBER 30 – A classic Creole fine dining experience at Arnaud's in the French Quarter, followed by a tour of the restaurant's famous Mardi Gras Museum.

DECEMBER 31 – Explore the roots and culture of the Treme and Mardi Gras Indians on a private tour of this historic neighborhood.

NEW YEAR'S EVE – Ring in the New Year with breathtaking views of the Mississippi River, city skyline, and fireworks display on the Steamboat Natchez New Year's Eve Cruise.

JANUARY 1 – Free day!
Recommendations for restaurants, tours, and activities available upon request.

JANUARY 1 – Kick off the New Year right with a Sips, Sights, and Sounds dinner and cocktail tour. The evening includes dinner at the historic Columns Hotel on St. Charles Avenue, you'll travel across the river to the Old Point Bar in Algiers Point, and end the night visiting music clubs on Frenchmen Street.

JANUARY 2 – Bon voyage!

RATES:

Double Occupancy $3,375
Single Occupancy $2,435

TRAVEL'S TUNE LUXURY

Three nights at the Bourbon Orleans in the French Quarter, plus exclusive fine dining and cultural experiences. Here's a glimpse of the itinerary:

DECEMBER 30 – Enjoy a cutting-edge, multicourse dinner and cocktail pairing at Square Root, the award-winning molecular gastronomy destination located in the Lower Garden District.

DECEMBER 31 – Roll the historic streets of New Orleans on a private Streetcar Music Tour that includes a stop for lunchtime po-boys.

NEW YEAR'S EVE – Ring in the New Year at Pat O'Brien's on the River, an elegant private venue overlooking the Mississippi River with front row viewing of the fireworks display. This exclusive New Year's Eve package includes open premium bar, cocktail-style buffet, and lasts 'til 1 a.m.

JANUARY 1 – Join the late-morning New Year Second Line and take part in one of New Orleans' most famous traditions.

JANUARY 1 – Because no visit to New Orleans is complete without it (and there's no better way to start the New Year) – dinner at Commander's Palace.

JANUARY 2 – Bon voyage!

RATES:

Double Occupancy $4,700
Single Occupancy $3,225

*All packages include Livery Cab service to/from Louis Armstrong International Airport.

* All package rates are based on single or double occupancy accommodations. Double occupancy rooms feature one queen- or king-size bed for two guests.

BOOK NOW! Contact (504) 434-2686 or info@travelstune.com for full package details.